The 20 branch locations being acquired by Robinsons Bank are in the following areas: Alabang, Baguio, Binondo, Cagayan De Oro, Cebu, Dagupan, Davao, Katipunan, Libis, Makati-Gamboa, Makati-Shell, Naga, Ortigas, QC-Morato, San Fernando - Pampanga, San Pablo – Laguna, TA – Greenhills, TA - Makati, TA – Ortigas and TA – Tutuban.

JG Summit sets P9b capex

By Elaine Ruzul S. Ramos

JG Summit Holdings Inc., the holding firm of the Gokongwei Group of Companies, is setting aside P9 billion for its capital expenditure program this year.

The amount is on top of the P13.5 billion budget for the rollout of the global system for mobile communications (GSM) network of the group's telecom unit, Digital Telecommunications Philippines Inc. (Digitel) which will be launched in the fourth quarter of the year.

Last year, the group's consolidated capex, including that of Digitel, amounted to P11 billion.

JG Summit Holdings president Lance Gokongwei told reporters that consolidation is the group's strategy this year to be able to remain competitive in the global business arena. This means, existing small plants and facilities will be consolidated and lumped up into one big plant to save on costs. "There will be consolidation in the food business (Universal Robina Corp. or URC) even as we continue to expand our businesses domestically and regionally," he said. Improved market conditions are helping boost the group's prospects.

"Now is a good time to expand. The economy is picking up very well and the capital markets are starting to bounce back. But at the same time, we don't want to bite more than what we can chew. We're excited with what we have," Gokongwei said.

JG Summit has seven core businesses: branded consumer, agro-industrial and commodity food products in URC; real estate and hotels in Robinsons Land Corp. and United Industrial Corp. in Singapore; telecommunications and Internet in Digitel; textiles and garments in Litton Mills Inc.; petrochemicals in JG Summit Petrochemicals Corp.; air transportation in Cebu Pacific Air; and financial services in Robinsons Savings Bank and JG Summit Capital Services Corp.

Gokongwei said net income for the group will be better this year. As of September, the company booked a net income of P2.27 billion. Fiscal year 2001 for the group will end on April.

He said URC will continue to be the biggest revenue driver for the group. Two of its plants overseas will be fully operational this year, and these are seen to complement URC's domestic business. Over time, the company sees its off-shore food business contributing half of URC's revenues.

For Robinsons Land, the company recently opened two malls and is currently constructing two more. "We are also looking at more mixed-use projects," he said. Mixed-use projects usually have residential, commercial and entertainment components. Cebu Pacific flew its first flight to Seoul last Friday, its second regional route after Hong Kong. It is eyeing to fly the Manila-Singapore route within the year. The local airline is expanding its wings to include not only regional destinations but also key cities in the United States.

The retail sector, he also said, will benefit from the recovery in consumer spending, although greater demand is seen for the services sector like that of call centers.
